GT Fishing Adventures

Imagine a week of popper fishing some of the most remote areas of the QLD coastline. Remote locations with huge GT's living in amongst some of the toughest GT fishing terrain you can imagine with big tides , means this place provides the ultimate GT and light tackle sportfishing adventure. The big GT's and range of other sportfish available, makes this one of the most diverse sportfishing adventures we offer.

Trip Details

- Big GT's and lots of them
- Very Remote area with limited and difficult access
- Fish headlands, Bays and offshore rocky islands
- Fly in and fly out
- fish from 3 x 18ft and 1 x 25ft sportfisher
- Predominantly calm water fishing

Shoalwater Bay is located on the northern Central QLD coast and is rarely able to be accessed due to the Military training ground at Shoalwater Bay. There is no road access to this part of the coast for some 300km north and south 50kg + GT's are a common encounter in this area, but landing them is not easy. When you want the ultimate GT fishing challenge, this is the place to visit. We can only visit Shoalwater Bay for a short time each year between army closures, and the dates available are:-

Dates available for 2009

30th January - 6th February
12th - 18th February

6th-12th February
18th-24th February

Why you need to do a Shoalwater Bay Trip.

1) Our number one priority is providing you with simply the best fishing trip available. The fishing is of course fabulous, but our equipment, boats, professional crew, attention to detail at all levels, the locations we visit and the highest level of service make a formidable combination to ensure your absolute enjoyment.

2) We are the most experienced GT fishing charter operation in Australia. We are on the cutting edge of tackle and techniques. The manufacturers of the worlds best tackle choose to fish with us to test their gear.

3) You'll fish be fishing one of the best GT popper fishing locations in Australia. Shoalwater Bay has previously been inaccessible due to the army closures and logistical challenges of accessing the area. Our mothership and floatplane combination solves these problems and opens up one a fabulous GT location. Our previous trips have all encountered 50kg+ GT's at this area.

4) If you love nothing more than casting poppers for big GT's in totally isolated and remote locations, this is the trip for you.

5) Shoalwater Bay is one of the most visually stunning places you will ever visit, and the fishing terrain is completely unique

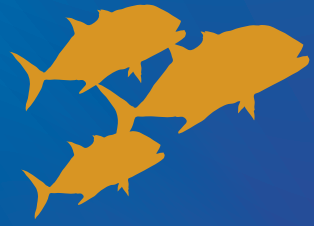

We specialise in offering personalised service to small groups of 12 anglers in search of a truly unique fishing adventure. Our crew of 7 will ensure that your every need is catered for and make this a most memorable experience. Our expert crew and personalised service are something we are renowned for and very proud of.

Shoalwater Bay consists of over 100 seperate islands, all with rocky outcrops and rockbars which the current rips over. Some of the islands you will fish include the Cannibal Group, Percys, Middle, High Peak, Duke, Marble, Raynam islands and Island Head Creek.

Shoalwater Bay 2008

The Shoalwater Bay area is huge, and is located around 95nm north of Yeppoon, and 120nm south of Mackay. You will fly out to the reef via Cessna Caravan floatplane. The flight will take you over some of the most remote islands on the Queensland Coast and on to the even more remote Shoalwater bay area, where the fishing and scenery will simply astound you.
